

Field Service Technician – metro New York area

QUADLOGIC CONTROLS CORP

Job duties:

- Commission new installations of meters and metering systems.
- Coordinate with data center to verify remote reading capabilities of systems.
- Instruct electricians on proper installation of all products.
- Quickly diagnose installation errors and meter defects.
- Determine proper course of action when an improperly installed, damaged, or defective meter is identified.
- Maintain awareness of all aspects of a project during implementation.
- Provide timely and detailed status reports to supervisor.
- Coordinate with engineers, repair technicians, and production staff to track defects and develop solutions to recurring problems.
- Maintain professional demeanor with clients and customers including contractors, maintenance staff, property managers, and tenants.

33-00 Northern Blvd.
Long Island City, NY 11101
T 212.930.9300
F 212.930.9395
www.quadlogic.com

Requirements:

- Technical degree or certification in electrical work, electronics repair, or similar field.
- At least two years' experience.
- Hands-on experience testing and repairing electrical devices or electrical installations.
- Ability to use voltmeter and basic hand tools.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Word and Excel.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and priorities.
- Self-motivated and organized.
- Strong record keeping skills.

Preferred:

- Project management experience.
- Leadership experience.
- Visual basic programming.
- Experience with software diagnostics and serial communication terminals.
- Circuit board diagnostics.

Contact:

Please send resumes and cover letters to techjobs@quadlogic.com, place "FSJOB" in the subject line.

Smart. Digital. Advanced.

25 years
ANNIVERSARY 1982-2007